

J N McNicol Prize Register – 7.36.2.1

Selection

The J N McNicol Prize is awarded annually to a student graduating with a first undergraduate qualification in any department of the Higher Education Sector of RMIT.

The award is based on academic excellence, and leadership potential and initiative.

The value of the prize in 2003 was $1500.

Recipients

Year	Student	Faculty
2004	Damon Stuart Craig	Engineering
2003	Gabrielle Stannus	The Constructed Environment
2002	John Papandriopoulos	Applied Science/Engineering
2001	Nicholas Halfpenny	The Constructed Environment
2000	Mark Robert Arnott	Engineering
1999	Lisa Marie Harris	The Constructed Environment
1998	Leigh Justin Mollison	Engineering
1997	Bevan Damm	Engineering
1996	Marie Smyth Robyn Taylor	Art and Design Education and Training
1995	Felizes Sangalang	Engineering
1994	Elaine Quah	Engineering
1993	Natalie Plumstead	Environmental Design and Construction
1992	Heiko Rudolph	Engineering
1991	Tonia Giobbi	Environmental Design and Construction
1990	Jessica Nicholas	Applied Social Sciences and Communications
1989	Michael Whitfield	Engineering
1988	Colin Vickery	Applied Social Sciences and Communications
1987	Ann-Marie Elliott Veronica Podolak	Applied Science Business
1986	Jonathan D'Cruz	Engineering
1985	Michael Waller	Engineering
1984	Ronald McLean	Engineering
1983	John Tidey	Applied Social Sciences and Communications
1982	Sophia Couzos	Applied Science
1981	John Taylor	Engineering
1980	Christine Harvey	Business
1979	Murray Scott	Engineering

1978	John Monaghan	Engineering
1977	Robert Elliman	Applied Science
1976	Andrew Grubb	Engineering