An International Humanitarian Law lecture series on today’s conflicts.

The first of these four lectures will focus on the history, issues and players in the Afghanistan conflict.

WHEN: Wednesday 29th March 2006
WHERE: Storey Hall (MELWAYS REF 579 7K)
RMIT University, Swanston St, City
TIME: 5.45 - 7.15pm
ENTRY: By gold coin donation.

Proceeds will be directed to International Committee of the Red Cross and Crescent (ICRC) operations in the Afghan region.

PRESENTERS:
Professor William Maley, Director of the Asia-Pacific College of Diplomacy at The Australian National University (ANU). Dr Maley is a member of the International Operations Committee of Australian Red Cross and Vice-President of the Refugee Council of Australia, and has a specialised understanding of Afghan history and politics. He is author of The Afghanistan Wars (2002).

Dr Nouria Salehi OAM, President of the Afghan Australian Volunteers Association and Coordinator of Afghan Support Group. Since 1981 Dr Salehi has been active for resettlement of Afghan refugees in Australia. In 1994 she founded the Afghan Support Group in Victoria which works for the resettlement of the new arrivals especially youth in Victoria.